

Be Connected Treasure Hunt Answers

It's OK if different groups have different answers (there may be multiple correct answers to some situations) so long as there is general agreement that all the answers are correct.

1. "I've learnt a bit about computers and being online and I'd like to help other people get online. Is there any advice you can give me before I start?"
A: How to be a Digital Mentor
2. "I'm OK using a mouse and keyboard and can just about get to Google to do a bit of searching, but that's about it."
A: More online skills
3. "I've got a bit of experience using a laptop but I've never really used the internet. My kids have tried to show me but they don't have the patience."
A: Getting started online
4. "My friend wants to send me some photos of her holiday. She said she could email or Facebook them to me, whatever that means."
A: Using email, Socialising online, Using Facebook overview
5. "I keep getting these boxes coming up on the screen when I'm on the internet. How do I get rid of them?"
A: Avoiding scams and tricks
6. "My tablet has so many apps on it that my grandchildren have put on it's hard to find the find the one I want."
A: All about apps
7. "I've had some experience using a laptop but I'd like to learn more about using one of those mobile tablet things."
A: What is a tablet, Using a touchscreen
8. "My children keep telling me I can listen to music on the internet. How do I do that?"
A: Watching and listening online
9. "I hear lots of reports of how dangerous it is online. It's full of people trying to steal your information and money."
A: Safety first
10. "Have you got any guides I can read at home about tracing my family tree?"
A: Researching family history